

GREENSPIRULL +C

TECHNICAL DATA SHEET

DESCRIPTION

Greensripull+C is a soluble liquid vegetable fertilizer from Hydrolysis enzymatic, whose active matter is made up of marine microalgae, which act as activators of the physiological processes of the plants treated throughout the entire crop cycle. It is a nutrient that promotes rooting, development vegetative and fruiting. It can be used for foliar and root application.

This bioactivating effect, due largely to cytokinins, is manifested mainly in cell division, increased carbohydrate production and proteins in addition to an accentuated synthesis of chlorophyll that gives rise to a intensification of photosynthesis. Cytokinins inhibit certain reactions of the cellular catabolism that causes the destruction of chlorophyll and aging in general.
